
INDIGENOUS COMMITMENT STATEMENT

GLJ recognizes the inherent rights of Indigenous Peoples and is committed to building and strengthening our relationship with Indigenous communities. We are on a journey to acknowledge, understand, and incorporate Indigenous perspectives to enrich our culture and our way of doing business. We believe in empowering Indigenous Peoples with technical knowledge to support economic prosperity and energy security. Honouring the Indigenous medicine wheel, we have four pillars to guide our way forward towards truth and reconciliation.

Our commitment to Indigenous Peoples continues to evolve.

AWARENESS

We recognize the distinct cultures, histories and rights of Indigenous Peoples. We are committed to understanding our shared history.

KNOWLEDGE

We welcome learning from each other as we share our mutual expertise to guide awareness and project development.

RELATIONSHIPS

We understand the importance of reciprocity while building respectful relationships with Indigenous Peoples.

GROWTH

We believe in engaging with Indigenous Peoples to achieve their cultural, traditional, and economic goals.